Either party may cancel this Agreement at any time upon ten (10) business days advance written notice, during the original term or any renewal, for any reason or for no reason. Unless cancelled by either party as provided herein, this Agreement shall be automatically renewed upon like terms. If during the term of this Agreement, the Austin County Commissioner Court fails to appropriate sufficient funds to carry out County Clerk obligations under this Agreement, this Agreement shall be automatically terminated as of the date funds are no longer available and without further notice of any kind to User.
