

Filing in the 2022 Republican or Democratic Primary Election

NOTE: Please note that information on this page is subject to change as a result of legislation or court order

Candidates seeking the nomination of the Democratic or Republican Party must file (1) a candidate application, and (2) a filing fee or petition in lieu of filing fee. Please note, the application along with the filing fee or petition in lieu of filing fee must be filed at the same time with the proper filing authority.

- Filing Period
 - The application must be filed between November 13, 2021 and 6:00 p.m. on December 13, 2021. (Section 172.023, Texas Election Code).
- Candidate Application
 - In order to become the Republican or Democratic Party nominee for a particular office, you must file an application \(PDF\) for a place on the ballot with the county or state party chair, as appropriate (see chart). (Section 172.022, Texas Election Code).
 - Candidates for federal office must file a federal application \(PDF\).
- Filing Fee or Petition in Lieu of Filing Fee
 - The application for a place on the primary ballot must be accompanied by either a filing fee or a petition in lieu of filing fee \(PDF\) signed by a certain number of qualified voters.
 - For details on the filing fee amount or number of petition signatures needed, see chart below.
- Judicial Candidate Petitions
 - Certain judicial candidates in Bexar, Dallas, Harris, Tarrant and Travis must file additional petitions \(PDF\).
 - Certain statewide judicial candidates must also file additional petitions using the Statewide Judicial Office on Primary Ballot petition form \(PDF\).

See our FAQs on Party Affiliation and Candidacy for more details about how primary voting or candidacy affects (or does not affect) candidacy in the general election.
