Re: Annual Re-Certification Ad Litem for Children and/or Parents in CPS cases

Section 107.004 of the Family Code requires that an attorney who is on the CPS appointment list maintained by the court to complete annually at least three hours of CLE relating to the representation of a child and or parent in a Child Protective Service Case. If you wish to represent both children and parents it is a total of 6 hours of CLE.

To remain on the list please send proof of hours to our office prior to December 20th.

The re-certification form is attached to this letter. You will need to send this form back to us and attach your proof of CLE hours AND proof of the trauma training (effective September 2021).

Email address for recertification purposes: districtjudges@gmail.com

Court's Website: www.36-156-343districtcourts.org

Forms for payment are available on our website.
